

1000 STUDENT VOICES

Create to Celebrate!

Gather!

- Look around your home for boxes, cardboard, or old pizza boxes to make a Student Voices Wreath
- Collect all things bright and joyful: ribbons, bottle caps, old magazines, old CDs, anything colorful or flashy!

Create!

- Cut cardboard in the shape of a circle that fits on your front door
- Decorate your new wreath with all things bright and joyful!

Celebrate!

- Enjoy this quality time by talking together about what matters most.
- Together, let's all display our wreaths as symbols of our commitment to Hawaii's keiki and their education.
- Embellish your wreath with personal ideas of support for charter and public school education!

S.O.S. Hawaii stands with Hawaii's public and charter school children and teachers. We are united behind one promise: we will do all we can to make sure Hawaii's keiki and teachers are valued, prioritized, and that education is sustainably funded. We believe that investing in education today supports all of Hawaii's for tomorrow.

Raise your voice this season...

Option 1: Display your Student Voices wreath proudly on your front door!

Option 2: Send us a picture and we'll include your wreath with our 1000 Student Voices Campaign. The goal is to let our Legislature, Board of Education, and Governor know that we're waiting and anticipating a win-win resolution for all. We welcome your drawings, video, art, or other positive and creative forms of expression!
